- Guest diver must be comfortable with potentially hazardous wild animals within close proximity, such as sharks and eels
- Flying within 24 hours after diving is not recommended

What is the reservation policy? The Shark Dive CLE Program is available on Saturday from 9am-11am and 2pm-4pm; additional days and times may be available upon request

Reservations must be made 2 weeks in advance providing proof of SCUBA certification. The program application packet must be returned to the Dive Safety Coordinator 7 days prior to program date. A reservation will be confirmed once the completed application is approved.

The Dive Safety Coordinator reserves the right to deny an application for the Shark Dive CLE Program based on factors that may include incomplete documents and periods of diving inactivity. It is recommended that if you have an excessive period of diving inactivity relative to your dive experience that you participate in a SCUBA Review/Refresh with any local dive shop.

What is the policy for cancelations? Full payment of the Shark Dive CLE program is processed at the time of reservation. Refunds are not available. Cancelations without 24 hour notice will not be rescheduled. Cancelations with advance notification will be rescheduled for a future program date within a year of the original program date.

The SCUBA Dive Instructor reserves the right to cancel any dive program at any time should they decide that diver participation is unsafe. No refund will be permitted.

The Greater Cleveland Aquarium reserves the right to cancel a Shark Dive CLE program at any time due to special aquarium circumstances, including but not limited to a thunder storm with nearby lightning strikes. In this circumstance the Shark Dive CLE program will be rescheduled for a future program date.
